To whom it may concern:

The Alameda Police Department has used SafeStore, Inc. since September 2010. From the very beginning, the Alameda Police Department has had no issues or concerns about the security of our items stored there, nor have we ever had any issues regarding access or ability to contact Randy or her associates. Their customer service and attention to detail have been outstanding. In fact, in July 2012, when SafeStore, Inc. expanded and moved to a larger facility, the CEO, Randy Turtle, made a trip up to Northern California and invited my department personnel out to inspect the new storage facility prior to the move. APD members had a few questions about procedures and security at the new facility and Randy was very receptive. She took proactive steps to adopt some of our suggestions and put them into practice.

The Alameda Police Department would encourage other agencies with storage issues to also consider Randy Turtle and SafeStore, Inc. for any of their storage needs. SafeStore, Inc. has been a great asset for the City of Alameda.

Sincerely,

Michael C. Noonan
Chief of Police
